All artwork must be "gallery ready." The Art Center will not mat, frame, or in any way prepare the artist's works for display. All art that will be on display must be delivered to the gallery by the date listed above and picked by the date listed above. All 2D and 3D work intended to be hung, must have a frame with a hanging devise or art must be wired to hang. The Ankeny Art Center doesn't sell any artwork for the artist and therefore doesn't receive any commission from sales. We will, however, provide a contact information to interested buyers. All artwork will remain at the Art Center for the entirety of the exhibit. Any items sold may be removed when the show closes. The Ankeny Art Center will not be responsible for artwork on display should a theft, fire or any other unfortunate event occurs. The Ankeny Art center reserves the right to refuse art work that is not fit for gallery and censor work as necessary. Please contact staff about works over 40lbs. Please fill out this form completely and bring it with your art to the Ankeny Art Center for drop off. Staff and Volunteers will be available to assist you in labeling the back of your work.
